

INGOL AND TANTERTON PACT MEETING 3RD NOVEMBER 2014

A lady who has been walking her muzzled dog on Tag Lane has been approached by another dog which has attacked her dog. She tried to hit the dog with a stick but then the dog attacked her. Only minor injuries sustained but all attempts to trace dog and its lady owner have been unsuccessful.

A staff member's push bike was stolen from Ingol social club from a side room of the club. From checking CCTV it appears the offenders have been drinking in the club prior to stealing the bike. CCTV is being burnt off for hopeful officer identification.

The Murco petrol station at top of Tag Lane has been targeted by thieves who have broken into the car wash machine and stolen around £90 in change. Although there were staff on duty it was not seen, nor is the car wash area covered on CCTV.

A further theft from the same station took place days earlier where the tyre inflation cash box was forced with the offender stealing £40 in loose change. CCTV from the garage was insufficient quality, as was CCTV from the Guild Merchant. It looks to be a white male

A Polish lady on Threefields has had her cars side panels scratched . Suspects a neighbour may be involved although no evidence to suggest this. Housing have been made aware of the situation. No witnesses due to it occurring overnight and no CCTV covering area

A schoolchild assault has happened whilst a 16 year old was waiting to board a bus. He has pushed 2 males out of the way in order to board and in return has been punched a couple of times by 2 similar aged males. CCTV from the bus has been seized and enquires underway to deal with the lads. It transpires that it was all over a falling out on Face book.

A drugs warrant was executed on New Rough Hey due to community intelligence via crimestoppers. A small quantity of drugs were found but due to no previous drugs convictions a cannabis warning was issued

An outer pane of glass of a double glazed front window was smashed on Tag Croft overnight. No suspects for this job

A house/flat party has taken place on Dunbar Road whilst parents away resulting in damage caused at the address. The partygoers from out of the area have been visited and will be paying back the money for the damage

Community Champions police programme continues to be run by the PCSO's at local schools being received well.

Very few problems Halloween time. Local shops have been visited and posters/advice given re selling of eggs to youths at this time of year.

PCSO Jules Parker has been working in company with the local dog warden and has issued a ticket to a male who constantly had his dog off the lead in the street. The male had several warnings prior to this ticket being issued.
